Eric Ericson and Libby Ericson : An Oil Geologist Abroad, Bolivia, Spain and Nigeria, 1956-1966 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised An Oil Geologist Abroad, Bolivia, Spain and Nigeria, 1956-1966:

This compilation of stories was written alternatively and chronologically by a couple who lived on three continents in the decade between 1956 and 1966. Eric Ericson writes of his search for oil in the jungles of Bolivia during communist agitation, the Basque mountains of northern Spain under the dictatorship of Generalissimo Franco, and Nigeria at the dawn of Nigerian Independence and prior to the Biafran War. Gulf Oil's Okan I was the first off-shore discovery in Nigeria and produced one billion barrels of oil by the year 2000. Libby Ericson tells of raising their two sons, and giving birth to their third, in difficult and challenging places and situations, and of the generosity and kindness always found in these very different cultures.
