ARABIC, and your first step into the UAE is a great reference for anyone planning to move to the Emirates or take a business trip into Abu Dhabi or Dubai. Even a holiday traveler will benefit from tips on taxi language and the words for local food. This list of essential local slang has been called the best quick reference for English-speaking visitors to the Arabian Gulf, a light-hearted approach to basic communication that may kick-start your enthusiasm for learning Arabic and will certainly make your first few days in the UAE a more familiar and inviting experience. Marhaba!
