must-have for the scores of Canadians who make the pilgrimage down to Florida each year. For all those tired of fast food mega-chains whose inexorable advertising campaigns litter the sides of US interstate highways, this book is for you. Driving to Florida does not mean 2 days of indigestion anymore. There is good cuisine for everybody if you just know where to look.

A wry and helpful look at Budget Restaurants (with excellent food) from Canada to Florida.

About the Author Canadian authors, both have spent much time working in media and on the road. Wise wrote a food column for the Toronto Star before penning three books on restaurants.
