AA Publishing : Caravan Camping Europe 2010 (Aa Caravan and Camping Europe) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Caravan Camping Europe 2010 (Aa Caravan and Camping Europe):

3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Good info but not enough listings
By C. Schreyer
We have camped all over Europe before in a van and used a German ADAC guide, which, though somewhat difficult to figure out at first, was very comprehensive and had a huge amount of campgrounds. I have not yet used this book "Caravan Camping 2010" - we are planning ahead for a trip next summer. While the listings look thorough (each one has a lot of information), I am worried about the amount of space spent on advertising (LOTS of glossy photos of campground pools) versus the amount of listings. In other words, this book doesn't seem to have as many listings as I would hope. I have looked for a couple we remember from the last trip and they are not in this book (Regensburg is a large German city and campground is not listed, for instance). The book does include country maps showing locations of campgrounds and information for campers in Europe in general, both very useful. We will have to find another, thicker guide for more listings.

Fully updated for 2010, this extensive European camping guide offers information on more than 3,500 sites in Andorra, Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Italy, Luxembourg, Netherlands, Poland, Portugal, Romania, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, and Turkey. Each country in the guide is divided into regions so that you can easily find the sites in your chosen holiday area. There is essential European motoring information including speed limits, motoring law, and required equipment, and fully updated contact information including website and email addresses where available.
