National Geographic Society : Caspian Sea Region (National Geographic Map) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Caspian Sea Region (National Geographic Map):

This was the map supplement to the May, 1999 issue of National Geographic Magazine. 20 inches by 31 inches. One side is a classic map showing the entire Middle East region surrounding the Caspian Sea, including Iraq, Iran, Turkey, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Kazakhstan and southern Russia. The other side is a simulated aerial satellite view of the same region, with some cultural information at the bottom.
