ITM Canada : Central America 1:1,100,000 Travel Map (International Travel Maps) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Central America 1:1,100,000 Travel Map (International Travel Maps):

By SteveI was disappointed that this map was not laminated the way other maps I've purchased from the same publisher were. As a paper map it tears more easily. I needed this mostly for Nicaragua, but unfortunately that country is split between the front and back of the map. I later purchased the National Geographic map of Nicaragua which is laminated but only has two countries (and more details than this map).

By big macThis map seems durable and is very detailed... although we have yet to test its endurance! We plan to use this on our road trip through Central America.

Double sided road and travel map covers the area from Belize and Guatemala to the border with Colombia at the scale of 1:1,100,000. It includes insets with Environs of San Jose (C.Rica), Panama Canal Area, Isla de Coco and Isla de San Andres. Distinguishes roads ranging from highways (paved/unpaved) to seasonal tracks. Legend includes swamps, glaciers, reefs, active volcanoes, railways, ferry routes, protected areas/national parks, international airports, domestic airports with scheduled services, landing grounds, points of interest, ruins, lighthouses, mines, beaches, gas stations, border crossing points. Extensive index, general information on the listed countries.
