Planning a wedding takes time, perseverance, and organization--and, for some couples, arranging the honeymoon is the most difficult part. A perfect companion to Checklist for a Perfect Wedding, this book contains all the information a couple needs to make their honeymoon dreams come true. Targeted ads/media.

.com Your dreams of the perfect honeymoon can come true! Wedding planning may be exhausting, but honeymoon planning will be fun with this great little guide, which details every step of the process. Hundreds of listings include more traditional honeymoon destinations, like Maui and Paris, and more adventurous options, like trekking in Patagonia or camping in the Sahara -- in a variety of price ranges. Honeymoons for music and art lovers, sports fans, gourmets, and more! This is the trip you'll always remember, so make sure it's perfect.From BooklistThis compact guide is divided into three sections that provide tools for planning a honeymoon, suggestions for getaway "dream" jaunts, and appendixes that list tourist bureaus in the U.S., Canada, and many other countries. Rodriguez-Hunter helps the soon-to-be married couple think about where they want to go and what they can afford to spend. Sound advice on the basics of transportation, accommodations, and destinations will assist young, inexperienced brides and grooms to consider all aspects of their trip. They can determine whether a travel agent is needed to aid with their plans and what kinds of things they really want to see and do. Several chapters discuss a variety of trips--be it beach, adventure, or culinary getaway. Checklists on what to remember while flying, driving, or taking a cruise, how to keep track of various reservations, and what to pack are another practical feature; there are even tips on tipping. This guide will definitely help create the relaxed or active honeymoon of any couple's dreams. Jennifer Henderson
