Small enough to carry in my small purse and pop out when we needed it. I was so glad I had it. Anyone would love it for referencing streets.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great item! Very compactBy Barbara GloverGreat item! Very compact! I was visiting and staying downtown and if I was hesitant if I was going the right way, I could open it up to confirm. I could not have gotten around with out it. Don't forget your glasses or a magnifying glass in case you need them. If I ever go back to Chicago, its coming with me!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good, but collapsing portion ill designedBy majcapOk, but map folding portions do not retain their creases and end up as a jumbled mess discreet reference tool that doesn't shout tourist alert! PopOut was founded in 1993. Having spotted a need to cure what he calls 'Map Stress Syndrome' after watching numerous tourists around the City of Bath, England, battling with oversized maps, founder Derek Dacey recalled the invaluable miniature charts he used during his days as a commercial pilot. Aiming to bring this level of usability to the city map market, a small team of designers was recruited to realize what would soon become the PopOut. 1993 saw the release of the first ever PopOut Map Bath, which was sold in the gift and souvenir trade across the city. Hot on the heels of this initial success, a research trip to the USA culminated in a redesigned layout, combining strong photo images, high quality printing and laminated covers standards which are still adhered to today. That research trip also saw the birth of the first US destinations covered in the PopOut range Boston, NYC, Philadelphia and Washington DC. Launched in the new style in the US they enjoyed instant success in the gift and souvenir trade. Today, PopOut produces over 100 titles for major destinations and is loved by travelers the world over.
