

(Read download) Children Map the World, volume 2: Selections from the Barbara Petchenik Children's World Map Competition

Children Map the World, volume 2: Selections from the Barbara Petchenik Children's World Map Competition

Temenoujka Bandrova, Jesus Reyes Nunez, Milan Konecny, Jeet Atwal
ePub | *DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

#4825052 in Books 2009-11-01Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.92 x .43 x 9.96l, 1.61 #File Name: 1589482468136 pages | File size: 51.Mb

Temenoujka Bandrova, Jesus Reyes Nunez, Milan Konecny, Jeet Atwal : Children Map the World, volume 2: Selections from the Barbara Petchenik Children's World Map Competition before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Children Map the World, volume 2: Selections from the Barbara Petchenik Children's World Map Competition:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Has a place in school libraries and public document collections around the worldBy Midwest Book Review"Children Map the World: Selections from the Barbara Petchenik Children's World Map Competition, Volume 2" is showcases artistic creations of maps created by children ages 4-15 drawn and selected from around the world, resulting from a memorial competition held in honor of Barbara Petchenik, a cartographer who studied how children understand maps and mapmaking. "Children Map the World" is a fresh and vibrant collection of children's windows to reality, with emphasis on themes of peace and universal cooperation. There are many interpretations of the children's views of global reality that are expressed in their colorful maps. "Children Map the World" is a vision suffused with hope and hopefulness for the future. It has a place in school libraries and public document collections around the world.

Children Map the World, volume 2, showcases one hundred favorite world map drawings submitted to the Barbara Petchenik Children's World Map Competition 2005-2007. The map competition, sponsored by The International Cartographic Association, was created as a memorial to Barbara Petchenik, a cartographer who studied how children comprehend maps. The vibrant collection of maps in this volume present varying perspectives on the theme "Many Nations--One World" from young artists, ranging in age from 5 to 15 and representing 37 countries. Cartographers, geographers, educators, and children will take interest in the colorful maps presented in this book.

About the Author Temonoujka Bandrova is an associate professor of cartography and head of the laboratory on cartography at the University of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Geodesy in Sofia, Bulgaria. Jess Reyes Nuez lectures widely on topics related to cartography for children, computer cartography and pre-Columbian cartography. He is co-chair of Commission of Cartography and Children with the International Cartographic Association. Milan Konecny is director of the laboratory for cartography and geoinformatics and associate professor at Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic. Jeet Atwal is a maps specialist in the Maps, Data and Government Information Centre at the Carleton University Library in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.