Marianne Makdisi : Circles in the Sand: Stories about life in the Big D before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Circles in the Sand: Stories about life in the Big D:

Must Love Sand Travel with Kids: The Bad and the Worse Ever just popped into IKEA? In this collection of short stories, youll meet all sorts of characters straight out of daily life in Dubai. Helicopter Mum. The Atlantis Tooth Fairy. Shopaholic Katie, who disappears down the Karama rabbit hole while buying handbags, and estate agent Mandi, a British expat locked up in Bur Dubai police station. There's also school teacher Hilary will she get to keep the Range Rover gifted to her by the royal family? Little Amir, a historical character who wants nothing more than to do his first, dangerous pearl dive. And overworked Marcie, whose husband gets overexcited at the Expo 2020 and swaps their housemaid for a robot. Also included is the popular story Cupcakes Heels, about workaholic Julie Wainscote. Fired from her job after becoming an overnight Twitter sensation, she takes up the challenge of becoming a stay-at-home mum and finds the adjustment and expectations may be beyond her. PRAISE FOR CUPCAKES HEELS: An uplifting and candid story about one of the most difficult decisions any mother has to make. A truly funny, insightful and beautifully written slice of parenting life.
