

[Download free pdf] Coast when ya kin: 30 years "behind bars"

Coast when ya kin: 30 years "behind bars"

ms Susan Schuyler Walker

*ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF

Download

Read Online

#3234403 in Books 2016-08-30 Original language: English 8.50 x .74 x 5.50l, .84 #File Name: 1534733000328 pages | File size: 26.Mb

ms Susan Schuyler Walker : Coast when ya kin: 30 years "behind bars" before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Coast when ya kin: 30 years "behind bars":

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A road cyclist's wonderful memoir By Kirk Jeffrey Coast When Ya Kin vividly evokes the experience of long-distance road bicycling--road surface, hills, wind, sun--but it does more than that. For Susan Schuyler Walker, cycling isn't mainly about distances covered and calories burned, nor is it just about the grand scenery of Alaska, Oregon, or Wyoming. It's also about the new friends she makes along her routes and the fun she has camping, improvising meals, getting lost, getting soaked, tasting that first sip of beer at the end of a hard day. And all her cycling adventures rolled out after she had turned 50!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good Read!By Sarah S.Good Read! Funny, touching, introspective and sometimes "right on the edge of my bicycle seat exciting" adventures. Definitely inspiring for anyone who's bought into the "you're (I'm) too old to do that" mentality.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great Rides!By William WeidenfellerThe author provided interesting and sometimes amusing experiences of her individual and group long distance cycling adventures. It was a wonderful travelogue that will be enjoyed by adventurers everywhere.

Join me on my bicycle travels in this recollection of my 30 years of long-distance cycling. Climb some of Americas highest mountain ranges, turn the pedals along North Americas coasts and rivers, battle the relentless heat and mosquitoes of the western plains. Don't stop there. Ride the Danube River from Black Forest to Black Sea. Visit the cold, foggy, fishing villages of Alaska and Newfoundland. Learn what it is like to be burdened with hospitality on a solo, long-distance charity ride. Best of all, meet some of your fellow Homo sapiens, the most remarkable animals on the planet.

About the AuthorSusan Schuyler Walker, a graduate of Bread Loaf School of English, Middlebury College, is a retired English teacher and curriculum developer. An active member of her local Audubon chapter, Walker enjoys birding and is also an avid long-distance cyclist. Walker lives in Stillwater, Oklahoma, with her husband Jeffrey, a professor of English.