I have wonderful memories of camping with Grandma and Grandpa Karr in the Sierras and in Mexico with old number 58 (their airstream). We had the coach here on our farm up until a few years ago, when we finally sold it. There is actually a photo of me with my family in the book. I'd love a copy, but cannot spend 80 bucks for it!After all these years it is still a good read, and actually quite timely, as more and more of us boomers look at retiring. Who wants to go directly to the rocker on the front porch? I too want adventure, and Harrison and Shirley Karr had some doozies!
