Ruth Robinson Greenup : Revolution before breakfast: Argentina, 1941-1946 before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Revolution before breakfast: Argentina, 1941-1946:

In Revolution Before Breakfast we have an accurate account of what happened during the war years in Argentina and a good picture of the political conditions that caused considerable uneasiness in the United States for some time. The change of pace that is achieved by alternating male and female points of view gives the book a fresh and engaging air. Originally published in 1947.
